

Back

Test your knowledge: authentication, authorization, and accounting

Back

Help

Log out

Your grade: 100%

From quiz: 100% • From assignment: 100% • To pass you need at least 75% (to keep your highest score)

Submit

Correct

You're getting there! Review your feedback before trying again.
Feedback will appear in the right margin of each question below. You'll receive feedback on the questions you've answered and feedback on the questions you've skipped.

1. What function do authentication systems use to verify a user's identity? Select three answers.

1/1 point

☒ Decoding

☒ New work

☒ Knowledge

☒ New work

☒ Characteristics

☒ New work

2. How do businesses benefit from implementing single sign-on (SSO) technology? Select two answers.

1/1 point

☒ By simplifying their user management

☒ New work

☒ By providing better user experience

☒ New work

3. A user's identity has two aspects: what's the range of permissions they have, and what's their role? Select two answers that change as permissions change or as roles change.

1/1 point

☒ Separation of duties

☒ New work

4. What are the categories of access control? Select three answers.

1/1 point

☒ Authentication

☒ New work

☒ Authorization

☒ New work

☒ Accounting

☒ New work

5. What is a critical flaw that can be exploited in a system?

1/1 point

☒ An application programming interface (API) token

☒ New work