

Test your knowledge: Network communication

100%

100%

100%

100%

1. Which of the following is not a characteristic of a network?

☐ A. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ B. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ C. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ D. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

100%

2. Which of the following is not a characteristic of a network?

☐ A. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ B. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ C. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ D. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

100%

3. Which of the following is not a characteristic of a network?

☐ A. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ B. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ C. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ D. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

100%

4. Which of the following is not a characteristic of a network?

☐ A. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ B. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ C. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ D. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

100%

5. Which of the following is not a characteristic of a network?

☐ A. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ B. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ C. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

☐ D. A network is a collection of devices that are connected to each other.

100%